At the Brooklyn Theatres,

A noteworthy theatrical event in Brooklyn to-morrow night will be the dedication of the new Columbia. The opening play will be "Alahama," acted by A. M. Palmer's company, and there will be addresses. This theatre seems bound to become a fashionable one. The managers interested in it. Edwin Knowles, Al Hayman, and Paniel Frohman, command the facilities for supplying it with the very best that the dramatic market affords, and the site and beauty of the house are in its favor.

At the Lee Avenue Academy that conglomerate of farce and variety. "The City Directory," will make the week merry. The company will be exactly the same as during the winter term of this entertainment at the Bijou, in New York, with Amelia tilover, Schooleraft, and Sweatnam in the lead of the diversified fun. This new version of "The City Directory" will be put aside at the end of the Academy Williss of the put aside at the end of the Academy Williss and so the present engagement is in the nature of a farewell.

Another pieceof joility, entailing nothoughtfulness upon the audience, but only maxing them haugh, is "The Hustler," which is offered for the week at Holmes's Star Theatre. This farce has a semblance of dramatic form, but essentially it is an assemblance of well-chosen vaudeville performers, whose various specialities are woven into the shreet of plot and characterization. "The Hustler" has Mollie Thompson for its principal soubrette in an exceedingly active and generally pleasurable company.

Spa dieg. Says II. Is Not To Blame. J. W. spalding submits the following statement re-garding the Elichardson case:

garding the first action case;

To yor Entities of Title Sys-Sir. The statement that I am responsible for the less of Richardson to the New York Club is not substantiated by the facts, which may be stated as follows:

First.—The attorneys of the New York Cinb have advised me that in order to have made this oction contract binding a notice should have been served on Richardson personally before the dist day of terober, or should have been left at his seas residence, which is at clinita. N.Y. before that date, and that the notice mailed to him at his temporar, boarding place in New York vity, not having been received by him before that date, was hid such a revived by him before that date, was hid such a revived is twithin the terms of the central, and therefore was not binding upon him. Second—The committee who distribute tile surplus players assemed silesson of the Philadelphia Ciub to the St. Loois, who was also had under attoption contract and upon whom notice had been served in a fairne, which is reserved under the terms of a contract had to implement the served of the philager.

Third—The New York Club, through its President, having entered into an agreement with all the club forming titus new League at the Indianapolis meeting to abide by the decision of the committee appointed to distribute sur lus players deprives the club of asserting any legal rights to Richardson gazinat the action of the committee sur lus players deprives the club of asserting any legal rights to Richardson to the New York Club, and those who have blamed me for the assignment of Richardson to the Washington Club have not been acquainted with all the facts.

No one regrets more than myself the loss of Richardson to the New York Club, and at Indianapolis I used every argument that I consistently could use to secure his services to this club.

Wheeling Gossip.

The Century Road Club of America will hold its first annual meeting in July. The Plainfield Bicycle Club held a club "caucus" at their club house last evening. The annual election of officers of the Kings County Wheelmen will be held this month. Wheelmen will be held this month.

If Crowther, the Fennsylvania, member of the National Racing Board of the L. A. W., was in town yesterdsy.

The Bedford Cycling Cinb racing team this season will be composed of Messrs W. Hovendon, L. Hoppe, P. Bartell, and C. A. koppe.

Messrs, F. A. Boriand, Fred Coningsby, Clarence Shadbolt, and N. Remond will representate Brooklyn Bicycle Club on the track this season. The Park Avenue Wheelmen will award a special medal to the member of their club making the greatest number of century runs during the year.

There is some talk of changing the dates for the annual meeting of the L. A. W. from July until september, Washington is considered too warm a place to hold a meet in in July. At the regular monthly meeting of the Brooklyn Bi-cycle viub, to be held on Tuesday, night, a committee will be appointed to nominate officers for the annual club election to be held on April 12.

Some members of the Riverside Wheelmen propose attempting to lower the road record from Tarrytown to Fifty much street as soon as the weather becomes tettled and the roads get in good shape.

As indicative of what we propose and infinite season, keed racing associations and infinite season, keed racing associations are springing up in all seasons from country, and some big races are being arranged for early spring.

Men's wear of all kinds.
